

Name: _____

Date: _____

Writing reflection

What detail in this piece tells the reader most about the SUBJECT (hero):

What detail in this piece shows most about how I feel about my hero? (my personal opinion: _____

Does this piece accurately explain why you think this person is a hero/how this person meets our criteria/definition? How/why not?

What are the most powerful/effective details in this piece of writing? Pick out at least 3 things that really make this story interesting/effective.

Name (yours): _____ Name (writer): _____

Responding to Writing (by others)

The most interesting/powerful part of this piece of writing is:

I like this piece of writing because: _____

Questions or concerns about this piece of writing: _____

This writer's strengths are (did really well): _____

This writer could work/improve on: _____

Does this piece give the reader a good sense of who this hero is/what he/she has done? How/why not?

Does this piece tell the reader all about your experiences/relationship with this hero? How/why not?

Does this piece accurately explain why you think this person is a hero/how this person meets our criteria/definition? How/why not?

What are the most powerful/effective details in this piece of writing? Pick out at least 3 things that really make this story interesting/effective.