

When spring begins on a farm, many chores need to be done. Farmers need to fix equipment and plow fields so that they're ready for new crops. They need to clean animal pens and care for newborn animals such as lambs. Other work includes repairing fences, setting up water pumps, and chopping firewood. When the new season arrives, a farm becomes a very busy place.