

Mark Zuckerberg created one of the most popular social media websites in the world. He got the idea for Facebook while studying at Harvard University. Facebook helps people find friends share thoughts, and post pictures on the Internet. Zuckerbergs' success made him one of the youngest billionaires ever. His wealth allowed him to donate a lot of money to different charities.