

Spring is the season that comes after winter and before summer. Spring is when flowers begin to bloom and the weather gets a little warmer. Many animals that were sleeping all winter come out of their hiding places. People spend more time doing things outside like having picnics. In the spring, the school year begins to wind down before the summer break. What does spring look like in the place where you live.