Character Traits

Villain	Brave	Nervous
Hero	Gullible	Stressed
Hesitant	Scary

Mr. Robson's Character Traits:

Good with computers

Likes nicknames – example, calls Ashley A.Non, Landen Woodford is Woody, Reagan is Spiderfan, etc.

Tired – at the end of the day, he always complains about being tired and wanting to go home for a nap

Handsome

Bully

Smart

Angry

Tall

Loud – sometimes yells during class

Annoyed

Intelligent

Great teacher

Nice – gives out chocolate, chips, cookies, candy canes

Weird

Underground to Canada is a novel by Barbara Smucker. It's the story of two slaves who run away and journey to Canada where they can be free. The main characters are Julilly and Mr. Robson. In the book we get to know the characters very well. Mr. Robson is nice, loud, and hilarious.

Mr. Robson is nice. First of all, Mr. Robson is very patient. When an assignment seems difficult to his students, no matter how much he wants to move on, he gives them as much time as they need to finish. Also, when holidays or special occasions roll around, Mr. Robson likes to bring in food and treats for his wonderful students. Because he is so patient and generous, Mr. Robson is nice.

Also, Mr. Robson is loud. If students come in late, sometimes Mr. Robson can yell. Recently there have been times where Mr. Robson has slammed a metre stick on a table, which is loud and scary for some students. So, because he makes loud noises and sometimes yells, Mr. Robson can be loud.

Lastly, Mr. Robson is hilarious. One time, when a student gave an answer that Mr. Robson found strange, he asked if she'd been drinking at lunch, which caused most people in the class to laugh out loud. On the first day of school, Mr. Robson announced that he'd just been released from jail, which was also very funny. So, often, Mr. Robson says things that are hilarious.

In conclusion, Mr. Robson is nice, loud, and hilarious. There are many other ways of describing Mr. Robson. If you got to know him, you'd surely form your own opinion and come up with other descriptions.